

Donald Runnicles to join Atlanta Symphony Brass Quintet
in varied KSU concert May 7, 2008

ASO Principal Guest Conductor Donald Runnicles will perform with the Atlanta Symphony Brass Quintet Wednesday, May 7 at 8 PM at the brand new Bailey Performance Center at Kennesaw State University. The exciting program includes important works from Norway, Armenia, Italy and the United States. And admission is free!

The program consists of Renwick's Dance, Anthony Plog's Four Sketches, Alexander Arutunian's Armenian Scenes, Respighi's Ancient Dances and Airs, and Canzona by Norwegian master Wolfgang Plagge.

The members of the Atlanta Symphony Brass Quintet are Thomas Hooten and Michael Tiscione, trumpets, Richard Deane, horn, Colin Williams, trombone, and Michael Moore, tuba and artistic dir.

"This promises to be one of the most historic performances in the forty year history of the Quintet"
-Michael Moore,

For additional ticket and event information please call (770) 423-6650,
or e-mail: boxoffice@kennesaw.edu