

World Talk Radio's "Oprah of the Airwaves", Cynthia Brian Interviews Richard Bach and Eleanor Knowles Dugan

Bestselling author of Jonathan Livingston Seagull and author of The Precious Lies of Madeleine de Scudéry: Her Admirable and Infuriating Life to appear on "Be The Star You Are" on the World Talk Radio Variety Channel.

Phoenix, AZ (PRWEB) September 10, 2009 -- Bestselling author Richard Bach of the allegorical tale that inspired millions, Jonathan Livingston Seagull joins talk show personality, Cynthia Brian on September 17 for a full half hour to discuss his newest book, Hypnotizing Maria, an exploration of the nature of reality and the power of suggestion. It is a dramatic story of discovery in space and time.

In the second half of the program, Francophile and author, Eleanor Knowles Dugan discusses the book that took twenty six years to finish-The Precious Lies of Madeleine de Scudéry: Her Admirable and Infuriating Life. Filling nearly 1,000 pages with gusto and pathos we learn that Madeleine was the best selling novelist in Europe for fifty years in the 17th century, publishing under her arrogant brother's name. Today she has been completely forgotten. Dugan is also the author of The Films of Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy.
